WISCONSIN FIELD OFFICE TECHNICAL GUIDE
NOTICE FOTG WI-2

The Wind Erosion Equation instructions, tables and graphs that are to be used in Wisconsin are now located in our electronic Field Office Technical Guide (e-FOTG) in Section I.

This material replaces, but is basically the same as, the Wind Erosion Equation material that is presently located in Section I, Erosion Prediction of the Field Office Technical Guide. The hard copy material pertaining to the Wind Erosion Equation that is located in Section 1, Erosion Prediction in the FOTG binder should be removed. Pages 1-22 should be destroyed. Pages 23-68 are still valid and may be retained and used when making wind erosion predictions.

A link to the Wisconsin e-FOTG can be found on the Wisconsin NRCS web site at
